Artan VI and Aziza, Undoubted King and Queen of the Outlands send greetings to all.

We have had a wonderful and joyous reign. It has been the best by far of all of Our reigns and We thank all of Our good subjects who were so helpful and caring and kind. We feel truly blessed to have had the opportunity to once again rule as the crown of this most phenomenal kingdom.

Before We thank Our retinue, We thank all of those Scribes who dedicated countless hours to the beautiful scrolls which We were privileged to give when we recognized Our subjects in court. It does add so much to the grandeur of Our kingdom to give such lovely pieces of art.

We thank first of all Our Steward, Countess Aelflaed, Our Lord Chamberlain, Baron Balthazar, Our Chief Lady in Waiting, Baroness Anne Bigod and Our Mistress of the Household, Baroness Katherine Holford. Your insight and caring were above the call of duty, and We appreciate all your dedication to Us and for making Us and Our retinue shine. It was not without care and thought that we chose four pelicans to help us with Our reign and you have made Us and your order proud.

We thank Our champions, His Royal Highness, Crown Prince Mordygán and His Grace, Duke Martino Michel Veneri. We felt ever safe and protected with them by Our sides. It is an amazingly difficult job to be a good champion, and they were both the exemplars of what a champion should be.

We thank Our Blue Iris Herald, Baron Charles Robert Blackstone. His Excellency was a font of light and laughter, and organization. We left him to organize all of Our court business and We were impressed with his grace, skill and demeanor as an excellent court herald, every time.

We thank our Warlord, The Honorable Lord Boleslav Ragnarsson. The Outlands army was better for his leadership and skill, and We were better for having had his lordship in Our court.

We thank the Protector of the Queen's Heart, Don Govanen Blackwell. Govanen was funny and helpful and ever ready to draw his sword for his queen, and we are so pleased that He proved victorious and was able to attend Her Majesty.

We thank Our sister, Countess Maud Seton, who is Our Minister of Ceremonies and Gimlet Herald, who shone forth in Our service and was a bastion of good and sound advice, organization and help. Her Excellency dedicated her time, her woodworking skills and her wife to Our service and we shall be forever grateful.

We thank Her Majesty's ladies-in-waiting, especially Baroness Constance Winandemere, The Honorable Lady Anstey's Darcy, and Lady Melodia Shaw. Her Majesty always felt cared for and attended, without ever feeling intruded upon. They were all exceptional.

We thank Lord Tancred d'Avignon, Captain of the Queen's Guard, His lieutenant, Lord Kelsus and all the guardsman. We never had to lift a finger and everything was always where it needed to be. These gentlemen will be a hard act to follow.

We thank Our comptroller, Jarl Gunwaldt Gullbjorn who is fantastic with funds and always made sure We were reimbursed for all our travel in a timely manner. It can be quite costly to be the crown, and Gunwaldt made it easier.

We thank all the rest of Our retinue, namely Duke Maelgwyn, Sir Chinua, Lord Laurent, Lord Don the Archer, Our Squires and Our Equerries.

We also feel blessed to have the most august and caring set of Barons and Baroness sitting on the thrones of the Baronies of the Outlands. We tried some new policies with court and events, and Their Excellencies were accommodating and enthusiastic. We cannot thank them enough.

We thank Mistress Nadrah, our Scribe, who did a fantastic job with Scroll assignments, and Our new White Stag herald who shone as a court herald with very little experience.

We thank the rest of Our Officers without whom we could not run a kingdom.

We thank Our royal seamstress, Baroness Genevere le Tisserand, who sewed every stitch of clothes We wore this reign. Even though the fittings were sometimes long, she made Us laugh with her delightful attitude and she amazed Us with the skill of her needle.

It is with fond memories and glad tidings that we wish you all farewell, and We pray that Their Royal Highnesses will have as much joy and prosperity as We did during Our reign,

We remain in service to the Outlands,

Kingdom Seneschal

Unto the Populace of the Outlands, good greetings this fine spring day.

Coronation is fast upon us. For those of you who haven't attended a Coronation, I heartily recommend it. There is something quite moving when you watch the current King and Queen say their goodbyes. The excitement of the new King being crowned by the outgoing King. And, he then crowning the new Queen. It is both comforting continuity and change all wrapped up together.

The new Crown is also interested in receiving award recommendations. You are the eyes and ears of their Majesties. Anyone may recommend anyone else for an award. Please use the appropriate form which you can find on our website.

I would also like to thank Their Majesties Artan VI and Aziza for Their assistance and forbearance during these past six months and for virtually no issues or concerns. I wish you both well in your dotage. I thank you for your service to the Kingdom yet again.

Service. An interesting concept. My service peerage turns twenty-one next year. I still learn what it means to serve and to serve well on a regular basis. When I was blessed to be King, Duke Verron and Duke Tomiki exemplified service in so many ways to me. Duke Olaf, Duke Hrothgar and Duke Artan are also inspirations. Sure, it is easy to point out Dukes that perform service because they are Dukes. They are noticeable. But here's the thing... they do perform service and they really don't have to do so.

Each of us can give back to this game we love. Perhaps you can't hold an office due to time commitments, but I bet you could help set up or clean a hall after a feast. And, really, how much time does an office take? Most don't take that much from your month or year. A little from each becomes a lot for all.

Your Servant,
Giovanni

White Stag Principal Herald

The November and December Letters of Acceptance and Return have been issued by Laurel. Results have been posted to the outlands-heralds email list and will be available online at: <http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/>

Of especial interest is in the Cover Letter for the December 2006 LoAR, in which Laurel announces that all 19 kingdoms of the Society are now using the OSCAR system. OSCAR is an online system for handling submissions and commentary at the Laurel level, and will cut down on the amount of paper the College of Arms sends around. This does not affect the number of forms needed, and the amount of money and/or time saved is yet to be determined. Anyone can look at the Letters of Intent online (commentary can only be viewed by College of Arms commenters) at: <http://oscar.sca.org/>

Coronation is coming up, at which time I plan to present the Crown with an updated roster for their signature. If you are a herald at any level, kingdom, group, deputy, or at-large, and your information may have changed or I do not yet have your information for the roster, please contact me.

Several of the kingdom staff heralds are seeking emergency and other deputies. If you are interested in assisting them, assisting your local herald, or otherwise are interested in heraldry, please contact myself or the herald whose area interests you.

Serving Crown and heraldry,
Marie de Blois

Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlanders,

Spring has sprung, and with it the ability in many of our areas to begin fighting outdoors again, many practices are starting in full swing for the summer. So just a couple of reminders.

1. Participants need to have either a waiver or blue card present at practices.
2. Authorizations in the Outlands DO require a paid membership.
3. Authorizations can only happen at official events or practices.
4. An authorized Marshal needs to be at practice.

I know these are things that we all take for granted, but every so often, it is worth a reminder. On the subject of authorizations, remember that there are special rules governing minors (under 18). They can fight or fence within the SCA and Kingdom rules but they will need to have the proper forms in place signed by their parent or guardian. For more information on this, see your local marshal, regional marshal, or drop me a line.

Sir Mavrikii

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Outlanders,

I would like to thank everyone who made Kingdom Arts & Sciences competition this year such a success. First, the Shire of Drygestan for finding such a wonderful site and the autocrat THL Renee Nix of Livingstone for doing such an outstanding job. I would also like to thank the judges who gave of their time and knowledge and of course the entries for sharing their craft with us all.

In Service,

Mistress Marguerite Dinard

Minister of Children

We are fortunate to have many resources available to our parents, youth, Ministers of Children and other youth volunteers. In the Outlands, there are three free discussion lists: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/outlandsjuniors/> (for teens), <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OutlandsParents/> (for parents) and <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OutlandsYouthTeam> for everyone who is interested in youth plans and activities in the Outlands.

There is also the society web page for Newcomers & Children in the SCA with an article, "Your Teenager and the SCA" at <http://www.sca.org/newcomers.html>. I very much recommend a wonderful on-line newsletter for the youth, parents and youth volunteers, called Libellus, which is filled with lots of good ideas for activities. The goal of Libellus is to present youth with period ways for having fun and becoming involved in the SCA. This free newsletter and several back issues are available on-line at <http://www.freewebtown.com/JamesandGwen/libellus.htm>. The website, <http://www.omnibusol.com/medieval.html>, has lots of articles on history in Europe, that will be interesting for both youth and adults. The Known World Handbook, available for purchase through www.SCA.org has articles on period games, clothing and other tips for parents and youth.

If you would like to be more involved with the youth in your area, contact your Seneschal, Minister of Children Officer, Baron or Baroness, or me at kreg@aps.edu. I know there are a lot of youth activities planned at various local events, including Mountain Mayhem, Outlandish, Crossroads and Dragonsspine's Champions. They can always use extra help, so please volunteer. Please share this information with your friends, your discussion groups, and your local group's newsletter editor.

In service,

Lady Jayne Barber

Archer General

Greetings Archers and the Great Populace of the Outlands.

Tourney season is fast approaching with spring already here and summer soon to follow. With the authorization process new to the archers of the Outlands, this would be the time to check your authorization card. There has been much confusion in the past regarding authorization expiration dates. This missive is intended to clarify the issues.

New archers may be authorized for no more than two years. If you authorize on or near your birthday, this is simple. However if your birthday and your authorization date are far apart your authorization would be for less than two years. For example, you authorize on April 07 and your birthday is in October. Two years from your birthday would be October of 09. However, this would give you more than two years, so your authorization expiration would be October of 08. More experienced archers may be authorized for up to four years.

Becoming an authorized archer is critical. Without authorization, you will not be able submit scores for Royal Rounds or IKACs. Authorization is required in order to participate in the Royal Archer Tournament as well as other tournaments.

Yours in Service

Baron Larke

May Day Celebration featuring the Quest for the Unicorn Horn

Saturday 5 May 2007

Barony of Caer Galen

Site opens 10am. Site closes 5pm

Come one and come all to Caer Galen's famous May Day celebration and puppet court! An event just for kids (or kids at heart). Come join in a fun-filled celebration of the glories of Spring!

This year's May Day theme: The Grecian Formula! Make your own mosaic! Be tested by the Oracle of Delphi! And confront Zeus himself and show off your knowledge of Greek history! There will be dancing and music. If you are a musician please bring your instruments and serenade us!

Bring your kites and fishing poles! The park is excellent for both kite-flying and fishing. Pot-luck lunch; the site is suitable for both crock-pots and picnic items; there is a grill available for firing up as well. No pets. Dry site.

10AM – 4PM

Site Fee: $0 (regardless of age) Please be prepared to show proof of membership (either your blue card or the latest OH and a driver's license), otherwise the NMS of $3 will be charged to all adults.

Hearken all! Come to Drygestan to celebrate in the New Year (AS, that is), albeit a week late! The Shire of Drygestan will be hosting a New Year's Party with a day in the park, full of melées and fellowship for all! As this location is at an open space park, Rancho Viejo Park, the site is bone-dry. No pets are allowed on-site. The Shire of Drygestan will be providing a brass-bowl donation luncheon, to help defray costs related to the event.

Directions: From the King's Highway (I-25), take the Cerrillos Road exit (Exit 276) and travel into town. Turn right on Governor Miles Road (the stop-light before the big American flag and just after Quiggy's Playland) and then turn right on Richards Avenue (a stop-light). Follow Richards Avenue down a few miles, past the Santa Fe Community College, into the Rancho Viejo/Windmill Ridge subdivision. The road will go past various in-and-out streets on the left and will eventually curve to the right. The park will be on your left. Look for the Drygestan banners and list-field.

From the east-side of Santa Fe, take your best route to the corner of Richards Avenue and Rodeo Road. Turn left on Richards Avenue and follow it down a few miles, past the Santa Fe Community College, into the Rancho Viejo/Windmill Ridge subdivision. The road will go past various in-and-out streets on the left and will eventually curve to the right. The park will be on your left. Look for the Drygestan banners and list-field.

From the north- or west-side of Santa Fe, take your best route to Cerrillos Road and Governor Miles Road. Turn left on Governor Miles Road (the stop-light just after the Santa Fe Auto Park) and then turn right on Richards Avenue (a stop-light). Follow Richards Avenue down a few miles, past the Santa Fe Community College, into the Rancho Viejo/Windmill Ridge subdivision. The road will go past various in-and-out streets on the left and will eventually curve to the right. The park will be on your left. Look for the Drygestan banners and list-field.

Autocrat: As always, please call with questions, but only before 9PM.

Site: Opens 11:30AM Closes 3:30PM

Site fees are: Member $10, Non-Member $13

Site is DRY. No dogs, smoking or glass containers.

Bring your own water and a picnic lunch

My Lords & Ladies, pray attend. The Barony of Caer Galen would like to invite all equestrian minded gentles to come & show off your skill with lance & sword and watch the pageantry.

Majestic war horses from across the kingdom are invited to gather and compete in grand style. Come watch the grace and grandeur of the cavalry. There will be equestrian rapier challenges to delight.

This is not your typical IKEQ scored event. Authorized riders of all abilities are welcome! We are inviting riders and mounts to dress in their best and make a grand entrance. Pageantry will be emphasized. Do your best to sway the judge. And maybe a little bribe wouldn't hurt?

This event will also be open to the public as a demonstration. Please join us in hosting our guests. There will be a limited number of lesson horses available for lease. See below for details. Equestrian authorizations will be available during practice for those SCA members who need it.

Leased Horses

Horses are on a first-come basis and dependent on your level of riding. If you are leasing a horse for the event, you must participate in a 1.5 hour group lesson prior to the event on Sunday May 6th at 5PM. Cost for leasing a horse is $60 (this includes the group lesson). Cost is per RIDER, not per horse. You may be required to share your leased horse with one other rider at the request of the ranch owner. This pre-event lesson is not sponsored, approved, or required by the SCA Inc.. You must pre-register and send two checks: one check for $60 payable to "Sun Pony Ranch", and one check for the site fee payable to "SCA Caer Galen".

 Checks must be received by May 4th, 2007 ***

All riders must pre-register by May 4th, 2007 All riders must wear ASTM/SEI approved helmets and protective shoes. Some helmets will be available to use.

No outside horses will be allowed on property before 11AM or after 4PM.

PRE-REGISTRATION

Make site fee checks payable to: 'SCA of Caer Galen'

Make lesson horse checks payable to: 'Sun Pony Ranch'

Mail checks to: 970 37th Street, Boulder, CO 80303

Directions: From the north or south, make your best way to I-70 east bound. Head east and take exist 330, Byers CO. Turn left off the exist and follow I-36 for ¼ mile. The fair grounds will be on the left hand side of the road. Look for the signs.

As the warm winds begin to blow to take the chill off the winter air, the hawk begins to soar and the Canton of Hawks Hollow hears the call of friends and family to gather. To gather you may ask where? Why at the Crossroads of course. This year the Canton of Hawks Hollow will be holding the 8th annual Crossroads event at a new site, Quint Valley Fair grounds located 45 minuets away in the town of Byers, CO.

We will be once again choosing our Champions of Hawks Hollow, Defender, Protector, Archer, Bard, A&S and Grand Champion of Hawks Hollow. In order to qualify for this esteemed position you must participate in all of the events or be able to do something else if you are not authorized to participate in all of these to be Grand Champion.

Let us not forget that THL Roland will once again be the MC for the Crossroads Cup race, this is also a requirement for the Champions position. Start getting your horse race teams together and be prepared to run like mad.

We will be having our meal plan again which includes: Sat and Sun breakfast and lunch menu to follow. A wonderful feast, for a separate fee will be available for Sat evening, menu to follow.

Potable water is on site, dogs are allowed but must be attached to either a human or a tether that is attached to a tree or spike all times. Alcohol is permitted. There are no noise restrictions that we know of at this time. There is a full supermarket across the street and down the road. Also for those who do not wish to brave the camping experience there is also a motel, yes a real motel also 1 minuet from site. Please go to the Hawks Hollow web page under events for all the latest details on menus, phone numbers for the hotel and any other updates that are not in this article.

As the weather warms and we grow restless with summer dreams, join us as Dragonsspine searches for its Champions for the coming year. All competitions, both martial and A&S will be put forth as we seek only the best to entertain and defend our beloved Baron and Baroness in their travels.

More importantly, this event marks an auspicious moment in our history, for the Kingdom of the Outlands will finally be of Age at the playfully innocent year of 21! Join us Saturday the 16th as we mark this occasion with a Baron's Brewing Competition, in which we will seek the finest from the ENTIRITY of the Outlands in three different categories of Ales and Beers, Meads and Wines, and Other Distillates (Liqueurs). Victors in all three categories will be named as well as a Populace Choice and a Baron's Choice. Brew enough to share and join us as we celebrate the lives of our noble Stag and gentle Hart of the Outlands!

We will also be celebrating the Birth of the Dragon in its journey from hatchling to the powerful beast we see today. This will also be marked with joyous celebration and much festivity.

We also will be celebrating the union of two gentles of our fair Barony so please come and attend as we honor their union at the summer solstice.

Come fight in the tournaments, fight in and around the castle, enjoy many an arts display, lighten your money bags with the many fine merchants gathered to assist you in your summer travels and not to mention HAVE A LARGE AMOUNT OF FUN KICKING OFF THE SUMMER TOURNAMENT SEASON WITH FLARE!

Site is Dry

Good gentles of the Outlands, Hearken. The Shire of Windkeep invites all to attend our annual Banner Tourney to be held on Saturday, June 23, 2007 from 10:00 AM till 3:00 PM.

Valiant fighters will contest on the field with an Outlands Banner as the prize for the most flamboyant and chivalrous fighter in the lists (there will probably be a prize for the winner too, but SHOWMANSHIP is what counts). There will also be prizes for best death, best bereavement, as well as a contest for the best banner. Fencers are welcome. In order to enter the list, you must present a banner to the Mistress of the Lists and display it on the field. The banner doesn't have to be your own. The banner can display personal arms, historical arms, or be just plain decorative.

HERALDRY COUNTS. Fanfares and demonstrations before combat are encouraged.

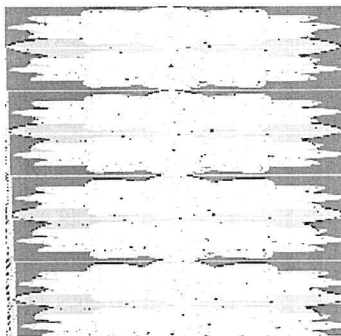

This tournament is held in conjunction with Cheyenne SUPERDAYS 2007, which is an entertainment, demonstration and craft fair held by the City of Cheyenne. It routinely draws 20,000 visitors each year. We ask all gentles to wear their finest tourney garb, bring their pavilions, music, and arts displays, and show off the best of what our Society has to offer. There will be dancing for all interested, and an Arts and Sciences pavilion where artisans are encouraged to display and demonstrate their abilities.

Tourney Site: The grassy area adjacent to the Cheyenne Botanical Gardens in Lyons Park. Take the Central Avenue exit from I-25 and follow the signs to SUPERDAYS. The site will open at 8:00 AM and close generally after 3:00 PM. Please arrive early enough so that armor inspection can begin at 10:00 AM with the tourney beginning at 10:30 AM.

General Information: The Tourney site is DRY!!! Pets must be on a leash, and under your immediate control. There is a lake very near, so please keep track of your children as well.

You will be allowed to park along side the site on Carey Avenue to unload, but you must move your vehicle immediately after unloading. Parking will be available in the lots adjacent to SUPERDAYS. (Tell the parking attendant you are part of the entertainment) The earlier you come, the better (closer) the parking

Revel: Immediately after the day's activities, a revel will be held at the Gazebo in Lyons Park. The cooks of Windkeep will be providing culinary delights to satisfy both stomach and soul. The Gazebo is north of the tourney site; there will be directions at the tourney site. The revel site is DRY.

Plato's Birthday Celebration

Join Their Excellencies of Citadel and the Medici family at their summer estate and winery, La Vina, in the sunny southern Outland's countryside as they celebrate Plato's Birthday and have their annual Baronial A&S Competition and Collegium. The fabulously beautiful site has a stage, two acres with grass, and trees with a gorgeous view of the Mesilla Valley and the Franklin mountains on the historic Don Juan Onate Trail. Let the acres of grape vines and fresh air take you to the countryside of Florence where we will choose our Baronial A&S Champion, Visiting A&S Champion, and Science Champion so everyone is welcome to enter. The competition will occur in the morning and the collegium with symposiums will be in the afternoon with scientific oddities and surprise entertainments in the evening. There will be rapier, heavy, and heraldic fighting so bring your armor and weapons, too. Enjoy the traditional Italian pastoral luncheon by Mistress Bahiyyah and an Italian feast by Mistress Leah during the evening of Bacchanalian festivities.

When: Saturday, June 23, 2007

Where: La Vina Winery at 4201 S. Hwy 28. - La Union, NM 88021 - Ph.505-882-7632

Directions: Where: The wooded pastures to the north-east (Site of Cattle Raids) Take your best route to I-25 and hwy 34 and go east, stay on 34 around Greeley, do not take the business 34 exit into Greeley. When you come to the hwy 85 and hwy 34 Junction look for the Fort Morgan Exit and stay on 34 to the town of Kersey, just past Kersey look for the County road 56 sign and turn left onto 56 follow to the dead end and turn left follow the dirt road into the site. Signage is planned.

Restrictions: Fire restrictions are unknown at this time (none currently). Dogs are welcome, but must be on a leash (with some one or some thing attached to the other end) or in a pen. There is wildlife in the area, deer, coon, coyote, etc. so sensible precautions to safeguard your camp and self are expected of everyone.

Schedule: This weekend will be a fun-filled event with a three-person team competition. Each team will be a random draw and consist of an archer, a heavy fighter, and a fencer. The fun this weekend will also include, a grand boffer melee, nighttime torch-light tournaments, and various kids activities throughout the weekend. This is a good event for all people, whether you are interested in fighting, archery or fencing, or just to kick back and relax. Each member of the team will compete in their own events, plus as a team they will throw axes, shoot combat archery, throw spears, compete against the kids in an all out boffer war, plus many more fun things that will appeal to all folks.

EXTRA! EXTRA! GET YOUR COMPLEAT ANACHRONIST HERE!

With all the talk I've been putting out there about The Compleat Anachronist, you may be wondering just exactly what it is, and how you go about buying the publication.

The Compleat Anachronist is a pamphlet series published four times a year by the Society for Creative Anachronism. Each issue focuses on a topic relevant to the time period 600 C.E. to 1600. It provides an opportunity for a topic to be explored in much greater depth than is usually feasible in Tournaments Illuminated, a Kingdom Arts and Sciences publication, or a local newsletter.

General information about The Compleat Anachronist can be found at: <http://www.sca.org/ca/>

Guidelines for authors can be found at: <http://www.sca.org/ca/guidelines.html>

Subscriptions may be purchased with your membership. Individual issues may be purchased at the SCA Marketplace: <http://www.sca.org/members/marketplace.html>

An index of previously published titles can be found at: <http://www.sca.org/ca/issues.html>

Issues of The Compleat Anachronist that are damaged or lost in the mail can be replaced at the recipient's request. Please contact:

Kingdom law changes, the 11th day of March, A.S. XXXXI, being 2007 Gregorian.

Current: II. RIGHTS, DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF THE CROWN

The Crown shall confer awards upon individuals. Only members of the S.C.A. may receive armigerous awards. No award, whether armigerous or not, may be conferred upon a subject of any realm outside the Kingdom of the Outlands without the prior written consent of the Crown to whom the individual is subject.

The Crown shall call courts as may be necessary for the governance of the Kingdom.

The primary purpose of any such court is for investigation of questions and issues, for opening communication on issues and for the clarification of issues (see Section X.)

Change to read:

The Crown shall confer awards upon individuals or official groups. Only members of the S.C.A. may receive armigerous awards. No award, whether armigerous or not, may be conferred upon a subject of any realm outside the Kingdom of the Outlands without the prior consent of the Crown to whom the individual is subject.

The Crown shall call courts as may be necessary for the governance of the Kingdom.

Current: II. RIGHTS, DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF THE CROWN

It shall be presumed that all persons who complete a full reign as Crown of the Outlands have met the requirements for elevation to the peerage. The granting of Royal Peerage shall therefore be accompanied by a Patent of Arms. Any Peer who wishes to rebut this assumption may petition the Successors prior to the granting of the Patent.

Current: III. SELECTION OF ROYALTY

The rules of the Crown lists shall be the Rules of the Lists and the Kingdom fighting conventions, as approved by the Sovereign of the Kingdom in consultation with the Earl Marshall.

Change to read:

The rules of the Crown lists shall include the Rules of the Lists and the Kingdom fighting conventions, as approved by the Sovereign of the Kingdom in consultation with the Earl Marshall.

Current: III. SELECTION OF ROYALTY

F. Entrants and Consorts must have a name and device registered with the College of Arms, or submitted to the Outlands College of Heraldry. In submission is defined as complete heraldic paperwork received by White Stag Principal Herald or a designated deputy no later than the 1st of the month of Crown Tournament. All entrants and consorts with registered arms shall display them during Crown Tournament.

Change to read:

F. Entrants and Consorts must have a name and device registered with the College of Arms, or submitted to the Outlands College of Heraldry. Submitted is defined as complete heraldic paperwork having been received by the appropriate Kingdom herald for submissions no later than the 1st of the month of Crown Tournament. All entrants and consorts with registered arms shall display their heraldry in an appropriate and period manner during Crown Tournament.

Current: IV. SUCCESSION OF THE CROWN

C. If the prospective Sovereign shall abdicate or be disqualified, the Crown shall call a new Crown Tournament as soon as one may reasonably and legally be announced and published to the populace. This shall determine a new couple to be invested as Crown Prince and Princess at the court following the list. The abdicated/disqualified prospective Sovereign may not participate in this tournament. If the prospective Consort shall abdicate or be disqualified, the prospective or new Sovereign shall choose a new Consort who meets the qualifications as stated in Section III.C. Royal Heirs and Royalty must maintain their memberships throughout their term as Royalty or both shall be removed.

Crown Tournament Thank You's

Greetings!

I was the autocrat for Spring Crown Tournament. This event was a success due to the fine people of our kingdom that attended the event and who helped with the event. Hundreds of hours went into the planning, preparation, setup, performance of duties, and clean up.

Allow me to thank several people that made this event possible. Also, please take the time to read THL Morris's article as well. His thank you's identify and list the kitchen staff and servers better than I could have done.

Thank you to the officers of the Barony of al-Barran; THL Y Port Lairge (planning and coordination), Lady Sile inghean Duibh Darach (budget, gate), Master Ryan de Caergybi (web site), Seale inghean Roibeard (list mistress), Lady Kira MacDuff (coordination of baronial inventory), Lady Mabel McEwen (water bearing), and Lord Sean Cealleachain (chirurgeon) were valuable help prior to the event and during the event.

Thank you to the coordinators for the event; THL Stjerne (backup autocrat in all matters), Lord Branduibh (setup), Lady Elenor Dreamweaver (feast entertainment), Sir Chinua (head table planning and serving), Lady IA (server planning and coordination), Lord Rognvaldr and Lady Solveig (herald cover art and site tokens), and Lady Ursula (food acquisition and budget).

Thank you to Lady Ursula and Lady Astridr for the fine lunch and hot coffee and tea. It was wonderful to have that much hot coffee and hot tea on the field.

Special thank you to THL Morris and his entire staff. Serving all of the tasty, hot food at once was amazing. I have been involved with several feasts and this one was grand.

Thank you to Slaine and "her boys", Alanna, Ailish, THL Kathws, Lady Cristin, Lord Eric, and Master Gunwaldt for help above and beyond.

Lastly, to Mistress Kathryn and Sir Stefan. Thank you for the valuable advice and consul for this event. Your information and experience helped this event go off on time and on budget.

In service – always,
Sir Dennis the Wright

I, THL Morris O'fiaich, Feast Steward for Crown Tournament, would like to publicly acknowledge those who made the feast possible and in the words of someone whose words I respect greatly, "The smoothest running kitchen I've ever seen."

This was the easiest and most stress-free feast it has ever been my pleasure to present. With the help with which I was blessed, my contribution on the day of the feast was essentially limited to holding a schedule and a smoke behind the kitchen and shouting the next step to my skilled staff.

I need to specifically thank: Sir Dennis for "talking me into volunteering" and then stepping out of the way and letting me take care of bidness, unless I needed anything at all... In which case he was a huge help. Lady Ursula for her tremendous help in shopping and getting equipment and supplies to the right place at the right time.

Lady Gormlaith for massive amounts of help prepping and shopping for rare items as well as being a treasure at the feast (and cleaning my kitchen half a dozen times in the week preceding the feast. Lord Gargamont for skillful prepping and timely beer runs. Lord Traithgren for his help onsite, leaving me with my hands and mind free to flail about when necessary. Anghus Copenhaver for his lightning knife work prepping for the feast. Cody Edwardson for handling tedious but crucial vegetable prep. Christopher for being a fantastic student and tireless worker before and during the feast. THLady Teresa C. de Baca for volunteering onsite and knowing exactly what needed to be done without supervision (and for the great spread she laid for the kitchen staff as well as taking care of a number of folks with blood sugar issues by whipping up lovely snacks at the drop of a toque).

Lady Ia for running an efficient and charming staff of servers and for simply smiling and waiting while I temporarily lost my mind during the plating. To Sir Chinua and the squires that served the head table.

As always, I thank Their Royal Majesties, Their Royal Highnesses, and Their Excellencies al-Barran for the opportunity to serve.

And last but not never least, Lord (Uncle) Scarbellius for being the Scullery Master nonpareil. His diligence and awareness makes any kitchen in which he is present run smoothly.

I hear rumors that Lord Scarbellius is considering taking a well deserved retirement. If anyone is interested in learning this crucial profession, think about volunteering at the next feast.

If I neglected to acknowledge anyone, please contact me so I can abase myself publicly and remedy the oversight.

Do you know any of the nominees on this list?

Would you or someone you know make a good Director?

Tell us about them!

The Board seeks input from the membership concerning any of the individuals on the list below. Your commentary is very much needed and gratefully received. In addition, new nominees are always needed and strongly encouraged. Any member may nominate any member, including themselves, for the Board. If you know someone who you think would make a good Board member, please nominate them. Remember that all information in these letters is kept completely confidential, and no one elected to the Board ever sees commentary about themselves.

Please send all comments and nominations to Gabrielle Underwood, Board Recruiting Ombudsman, 209 Cochrane St. Apt 1. Port Perry, Ontario (Canada) L9L 1L6 or e-mail recruiting@sca.org. Please include your name and address in any correspondence sent concerning these matters, and remember to include the name and address of anyone you nominate for the Board so that we may contact them. You will receive a response indicating that we received your correspondence - if you don't hear back from us promptly, we did not get your missive.

Outlandish Herald Submission Guidelines

Event Announcements:

Printing event announcements is an important function of the Outlandish Herald. All received event announcements will be published in the next issue. Event announcements may be edited for length when space limitations occur. Deadline for the submission of event announcements is the 1st of the month prior to publication.

ALL event announcements must be submitted electronically. Event announcements not sent electronically will not be accepted for publication.

ALL event announcements not containing mandatory elements will be returned to the submitter for correction.

Please do not use any special formatting or fonts when submitting event announcements.

The Chronicler reserves the right to edit for content, length and format.

The following elements MUST be contained in the event announcement to ensure publication in the Outlandish Herald. If these mandatory elements are not included, the event notice will be returned to submitter for correction.

- * Name of the event
- * Date of the event (day, month and Common Era year)
- * Times of the event - when the site opens and closes,
- * Name of the sponsoring group
- * Mundane location of the site (site name, city, state, zip), and WRITTEN directions. Maps are optional.
- * Autocrat information: both SCA and legal names, address, telephone number, email address if available.
- * A concise schedule of fees, including a statement regarding non-member fees. If there are no fees associated with the event, that must be clearly stated.
- * The statement "Checks payable to 'SCA, Inc - GROUP NAME'".
- * Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- * Any additional site restrictions or information.
